the proportion as the population of each municipality bears to the aggregate population of all municipalities within the state, according to the latest federal census and other censuses authorized by law:

(a) On or after July 1, 2018, through June 30, 2019, four and six thousand seven hundred eighteen ten-thousandths percent (4.6718%);

(b) On or after July 1, 2019, through June 30, 2020, four and seven thousand sixty two ten-thousandths percent (4.7062%);

(c) On or after July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, four and seven thousand four hundred and six ten-thousandths percent (4.7406%);

(d) On or after July 1, 2021, through June 30, 2022, four and seven thousand seven hundred fifty ten-thousandths percent (4.7750%);
and

(e) On or after July 1, 2022, four and eight thousand ninety four ten-thousandths percent (4.8094%);

(ii) Municipalities incorporated subsequent to the last decennial federal census shall, until the next decennial federal census, be eligible for an allotment under this subdivision (a)(3)(A), commencing on July 1, following incorporation, election, and installation of officials, on the population basis determined under rules of the department of economic and community development and certified by that office to the commissioner; provided, that an accurate census of population has been certified to the department of economic and community development by the municipality. Municipalities now participating in allocation shall continue to do so on the basis of their population determined according to law;

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-6-103(a)(3)(E), is amended by deleting the first sentence of the subdivision and substituting instead the following:

Before distributing moneys to incorporated municipalities from the sales tax, as provided in this subdivision (a)(3), the commissioner of finance and administration shall make a deduction therefrom monthly of a sum equal to one percent (1%) of the monthly allocation of the amount of sales tax collections allocated to incorporated municipalities as provided for in subdivision (a)(3)(A);

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect July 1, 2018, the public welfare requiring it.

AMEND Senate Bill No. 2405*

House Bill/No. 2606

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 37, Chapter 1, Part 4, is amended by adding the following as a new, appropriately designated section:

By January 1, 2019, the department shall develop instructional guidelines for child safety training programs for members of professions that frequently deal with children who may be at risk of abuse, which programs include the common signs of child abuse, human trafficking when a child is the victim, and child sexual abuse; how to identify children at risk of abuse, human trafficking, or sexual abuse; and the reporting requirements of this part. The department shall work with each licensing board to ensure that any child safety training program created by a licensing board fully and accurately reflects the best practices for identifying and reporting child abuse, human trafficking when a child is the victim, and child sexual abuse as appropriate for each profession.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
